RED CROSS TOBACCO

THE "GIVE A BUNDLE" CAMPAIGN

The interest in the "Give a Bundle" campaign for the Red Cross continues to grow.

The response has been very generous especially have the patriotic farmers been "doing their bit." In addition to the donations already mentioned the following have been received:

A colored man working for W. L. Candler at Greasy gave 50 lbs. of corn.

Mr. T. O. Kinnard gave 50 lbs. of corn.

One man promised half the profits on 10 lbs. of tobacco he bought from the Red Cross at Louisville.

Mr. T. O. Kinnard gave 50 lbs. of corn.

With but very few exceptions every farmer approached gave from an amount to 20 lbs. from the wagon.

Mr. Tom Garrett gave $25.

Mrs. Ed Weatherly has charge of the work this week and is being very ably assisted by the following committee:

President: Bro. and Hanesek gave 50 lbs. which brought the top match price of $22.

H. D. Warshaw gave 10 lbs. interest was very manifest at Tandy's. Mr. Stowe and Mr. Walker very kindly did the classing. Mr. Crenshaw gave $5.

One patriotic employee of Hancock's had sold his tobacco, but gave a check for $5.

Another man gave a check for $1.16 at the Ky. Leaf.

Mrs. G. Howard Stowe has started a movement to augment the Red Cross fund by the sale of eggs donated by members of the Egg Circle, of which she is president, and others. It promises to add many dollars to the fund.

HUNG JURY

The case of Mrs. Hattie C. Wood vs. Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., and Mrs. Elizabeth Wood vs. an trial Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The jury reported last yesterday afternoon that it was hopelessly divided six to six. The court discharged the jury from further consideration of the case at this time as it had been before them for nearly twenty-four hours. The case will probably come up for retrial next term of court.

Hattie Wood was suing to collect a $1,000 policy on the life of her late husband, Tom Wood, who killed himself last August and who, the day before his suicide, authorized the company to change the beneficiary from Hattie Wood, his wife, to Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, his mother.

The case of Mrs. Ruby Barnes and her husband vs. F. L. Stanley for $200 damages for alleged injuries to Mrs. Barnes upon a suspension seat by Lewis Barnes, vs. F. L. Stanley for $100 damages, was tried yesterday and the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Plaintiff claimed that the defendant ran into their house with an automobile and that Mrs. Barnes was thrown out and injured and that the buggy and harness were damaged to the extent of amount prayed for in compensation.
